

Corporate Trainer

FF06 HR, recruitment and L and D · ISCO-08 2424 · CBS 0415 Specialisten personeels- en loopbaanontwikkeling · seniority medior · Also known as: Learning Facilitator, Business Trainer

Designs and delivers training for employees, guides groups in learning situations and adapts methods to the level and practice of participants.

The corporate trainer stands in front of the group and owns the design and delivery of learning interventions. Unlike the training adviser, the focus is didactics, group dynamics and transferring skill rather than planning or budget. Selection stalls on presentation ability as the criterion, while the role depends on handling participants who were sent under obligation and do not want to learn, and on adapting the programme when the actual level turns out to differ.

5 Behavioural anchors per skill

Anchors sit at N1, N3 and N5. N2 and N4 are deliberately not anchored: raters interpolate between them, following the O*NET convention.

| Skill                                                                                                                                                                                                   | N1                                                                                                                      | N3                                                                                                                                   | N5                                                                                                                                       |

| PresentingBuilding and delivering a message to a group with a clear line of argument, fitting materials and attention to reactions and questions from the audience.                          | Presents a prepared set of slides about own work and answers factual questions with help from an experienced colleague. | Tailors structure, examples and level of detail to the knowledge of the audience and handles critical questions without preparation. | Presents at external conferences on behalf of the organisation, sets the key message for the field and coaches others on their delivery. |
| Instructing and explainingExplains a task or topic so the other can perform it independently, matches the starting level and checks whether the explanation was understood.                  | Demonstrates a simple operation following the instruction card and asks whether the other can copy it.                  | Builds an explanation up in steps, uses examples from the work of the other and has the task performed as a check.                   | Sets the instruction standard for the entire field and trains others to convey complex material understandably.                          |
| Designing training and instructionDesigns a learning programme with objectives, methods and assessment, chooses the format that suits the audience and delivers or supervises the execution. | Drafts a programme for one work instruction using a template and submits it to the trainer.                             | Designs a training of several sessions with clear objectives and assessment moments and delivers it to a group personally.           | Determines the training model of the organisation, chooses didactic principles and aligns programmes with strategic workforce questions. |

| Skill                                                                                                                                                                                                     | N1                                                                                                                    | N3                                                                                                                                    | N5                                                                                                                                                       |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Advisory skillSharpening the question of a client and delivering a well founded recommendation in a way that the receiver adopts and implements it.                                            | Supplies requested information and explains a standard recommendation following the fixed structure used by the team. | Reframes the question behind the question, offers two supported options with consequences and agrees a decision moment.               | Advises the board on issues with conflicting interests, challenges established assumptions and safeguards the quality of advice across the organisation. |
| CoachingHelping employees reflect on their own behaviour and choices through questions, mirroring and feedback, so they take a next step in their work themselves.                             | Asks a colleague after a job what went well and what they would do differently next time.                             | Holds coaching conversations with open questions, names patterns in behaviour and lets the other person formulate a learning goal.    | Trains managers in coaching behaviour, guides peer supervision groups and determines how coaching is deployed across the organisation.                   |
| Instructional practiceDelivers lessons in which learning goals, explanation, assignments and feedback align, and attunes pace and format to the group.                                         | Delivers a lesson segment under guidance according to a prepared lesson plan and keeps to the indicated formats.      | Independently varies formats with a mixed ability group and adjusts the explanation on the basis of signals from the class.           | Develops the school's instructional framework, grounds it in research and guides colleagues through lesson observation and feedback.                     |
| Listening and probingTaking in the message of the other party fully, checking whether it is understood correctly and using targeted questions to surface underlying interests and assumptions. | Lets the other person finish speaking, takes notes and afterwards asks about anything that stayed unclear.            | Summarises both the content and the feeling of the other party and probes until the real interest behind the request becomes visible. | Picks up sensitive signals in conversations with directors and supervisors and uses them to adjust organisational policy in good time.                   |
| interpersonal sensitivityNoticing verbal and non-verbal signals from others, naming what stands out and adjusting own behaviour accordingly during the contact.                                | Notices when a conversation partner disengages or hesitates and asks whether the explanation is clear.                | Names observed tension or reticence during a conversation and adapts tone, pace and wording accordingly.                              | Trains others in recognising social signals and uses that insight when designing sensitive change processes across the organisation.                     |
| organisational awarenessRecognising how formal and informal relations, interests and decision making work in the organisation and taking these into account in own actions.                    | Asks who needs to be involved in a topic before a proposal is shared with others.                                     | Assesses which interests a proposal touches, involves the right people beforehand and chooses a suitable moment to raise it.          | Sees through relations between organisational units and external parties and steers decision making by organising support at an early stage.             |

| Skill                                                                                                                                                                                                            | N1                                                                                                 | N3                                                                                                                                     | N5                                                                                                                                                |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| integrity and dependabilityActing in line with applicable standards and agreements, also without supervision, and being transparent about own interests, mistakes and doubtful cases.                 | Keeps to agreements and rules of conduct made and reports an own mistake to the manager.           | Reports a possible conflict of interest on own initiative and asks for review before a decision is taken.                              | Sets the organisation's integrity standards, enforces them also with influential parties and explains the resulting choices publicly.             |
| Organising learning and developmentDetermines the learning needs in the organisation, chooses learning formats and providers and organises training including evaluation of its effect.               | Arranges the practical side of a training course under guidance and tracks participation and cost. | Independently draws up a training plan for a department, chooses learning formats and measures whether the intended behaviour changes. | Determines the organisation's learning strategy, sets up the learning infrastructure and accounts for the return to the board.                    |
| Applying basic employment lawKnowing and applying rules on employment contracts, working hours, dismissal and employee participation in personnel decisions, and knowing when legal advice is needed. | Looks up in the collective agreement or staff handbook which rule applies to a question.           | Applies rules on contracts, leave and dismissal correctly in own decisions and involves a lawyer when in doubt.                        | Sets the employment law policy of the organisation, negotiates terms of employment with trade unions and assesses precedents and legal risks.     |
| Employer branding and recruitmentFinds and engages candidates through vacancy texts, channels and networks and guides them through the procedure up to an offer.                                      | Posts a vacancy in the standard text format and tracks candidate responses in the system.          | Independently determines channel and target group approach for a hard to fill vacancy and approaches candidates actively.              | Determines the organisation's labour market strategy, steers recruitment results and positions the employer brand in the sector.                  |
| independenceForming and maintaining an own position on the basis of own judgement, even when the environment or an authority expects something different.                                             | Forms an own opinion on a familiar issue and compares it with the advice of a colleague.           | Takes a decision that departs from the group line, explains the reasoning behind it and accepts the consequences.                      | Protects own professional judgement against pressure from stakeholders in senior forums and makes dissenting positions traceable and explainable. |
| Change managementPlanning and guiding change by involving stakeholders, phasing steps, influencing behaviour and tracking the results the change is meant to deliver.                                 | Adapts own way of working to an announced change and asks for explanation when steps are unclear.  | Makes a change approach for the team with those involved, chooses interventions per group and follows the implementation.              | Leads organisation wide change programmes, aligns with works council and supervisors and sets the change approach of the organisation.            |

| Skill                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | N1                                                                                                                          | N3                                                                                                                                 | N5                                                                                                                                                 |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Workforce planning and strategic workforce planningDetermining current and future staffing needs in numbers and qualifications, comparing them with the present workforce and deriving actions for hiring and development. | Supplies data on staffing and turnover and checks the personnel list for errors and duplicates.                             | Draws up a staffing forecast for the own team including turnover and retirement and names the vacancies to fill.                   | Builds strategic workforce planning for the whole organisation, links it to strategy and labour market and puts the risks on the executive agenda. |
| GDPR and privacy in practiceKnows privacy legislation requirements for own work, which legal basis and retention period apply and recognises when notification is required.                                                | Processes personal data only according to the applicable work instruction and refers doubtful cases to the privacy officer. | Judges in own processes whether a legal basis exists, applies data minimisation and handles requests from data subjects correctly. | Sets privacy policy, decides on high risk processing operations and represents the organisation towards the supervisory authority.                 |
| Working conditions and absence policyKnows the rules for safe and healthy work and the steps in absence and reintegration and applies them in conversations and files.                                                     | Registers absence reports according to procedure and flags when a statutory step in the file is due.                        | Independently holds absence conversations, draws up an action plan with company doctor and manager and keeps the file complete.    | Develops the policy on sustainable employability and absence, analyses the figures and tackles causes in the work itself.                          |
| Data analysisPrepares and analyses data sets to find patterns, relationships and outliers and connects the outcomes to the original question.                                                                              | Carries out a predefined analysis step on a supplied data set and records the outcome in the agreed format.                 | Selects analysis methods for an open question, turns raw data into a working file and supports every conclusion with figures.      | Sets the organisation's analysis standards, reviews the analyses of others and establishes new analysis methods in the profession.                 |
| Prompting and task delegation to AIDivides work between person and AI system, formulates task, context and required output format and adjusts based on the output.                                                         | Gives an AI tool a single task with a clear question and required format and uses the result after checking it.             | Splits a work task into steps, decides which step AI does and which not and improves the instruction based on outcomes.            | Develops organisation wide practices for dividing tasks with AI and trains others in effective and responsible instruction giving.                 |
| HR policy and instrumentsDevelops and manages HR instruments such as job architecture, appraisal, reward and mobility and links them to the organisation's staffing needs.                                                 | Explains to an employee which HR scheme applies and refers deviant situations to the adviser.                               | Independently applies HR instruments to a department's issues and advises the manager on their appropriate use.                    | Determines the organisation's HR policy, links it to the strategy and sets frameworks for all HR instruments.                                      |

| Skill                                                                                                                                                                                                    | N1                                                                                                                | N3                                                                                                                                 | N5                                                                                                                                             |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Assessment and selection methodologySelects and uses selection instruments such as tests, interviews and work samples, weighs the outcomes and substantiates an advice on suitability.        | Administers a test under supervision according to the manual and records the outcomes without own interpretation. | Independently combines test results and interview data into a substantiated advice and discusses it with candidate and client.     | Determines the organisation's selection methodology, tests instruments for reliability and validity and sets guidelines for their use.         |
| Recruiting and selectingDefining vacancies sharply, attracting candidates and making a substantiated selection choice using fixed criteria, structured interviews and assessment instruments. | Carries out recruitment tasks such as posting a vacancy text and scheduling interviews according to procedure.    | Sets selection criteria, conducts structured interviews with the same questions per candidate and records the judgement traceably. | Sets the selection policy of the organisation, chooses instruments on validity and equal opportunity and monitors the quality of appointments. |

6 Assessment methods and validity

The validities are the corrected meta-analytic estimates from Sackett, Zhang, Berry and Lievens (2022) in the Journal of Applied Psychology, which replace the older Schmidt and Hunter (1998) figures. The spread matters as much as the mean: with a high SD, validity varies strongly by context.

| Assessment method           | rho  | SD   | What it is                                                                         |

8 How to use this profile

1. Agree the profile with the hiring manager before the first candidate is measured. Weights shifted afterwards make the outcome indefensible.
2. Choose the assessment method per skill from the Assessment method column. Combine at most three methods per candidate.
3. Calibrate the assessors in a two-hour session using the anchors in chapter 5. Anchors without rater training deliver little.
4. Fill in the match calculator and discuss the gaps in the development conversation. Type A and type G are selection criteria, not one-quarter development goals.
