

Board Secretary

FF01 General management and executive · ISCO-08 3343 · CBS 0423 Office managers en managementassistenten · seniority senior · Also known as: Corporate Secretary, Company Secretary, Governance Secretary

Supports the executive board and supervisory board with meeting documents, minutes and governance, and ensures decisions are formally and traceably recorded.

The board secretary prepares meetings of the executive and supervisory boards, tracks the decision making calendar and drafts minutes and action lists. Unlike an executive assistant, this is not just about agenda management but about safeguarding statutory and governance obligations. Selection often fails on secretarial skill alone, while the role stands or falls on flagging when a decision is not procedurally sound, even to a director in a hurry.

5 Behavioural anchors per skill

Anchors sit at N1, N3 and N5. N2 and N4 are deliberately not anchored: raters interpolate between them, following the O*NET convention.

|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| DecisivenessMakes a choice within the time available, also when not all information is present, and stands behind its consequences.                                                          | Decides on standard cases within the own task and refers deviating cases to the supervisor in good time. | Cuts through conflicting advice, communicates the decision and states when it will be evaluated.                           | Decides on irreversible matters with major consequences, records the trade off and sets which decisions others may take themselves.             |
| Developing visionSketching a coherent picture of where the organisation or team will stand in a few years, based on trends, signals and own judgement.                                       | States in own words where the team wants to stand in a year and which work belongs to that.              | Connects trends in market and profession into a picture for the own team and tests it with colleagues.                     | Formulates a multi-year vision for the whole organisation, underpins it with scenarios and uses it as a test for investments.                   |
| Strategic thinkingAnalysing developments in the environment, market and technology and deriving strategic choices and alternatives from them for the longer term of an organisation or unit. | Collects data on market and competitors on request and summarises the main developments for the manager. | Places figures, customer signals and trends side by side and names two or three strategic options with their consequences. | Develops scenarios for the whole organisation, weighs uncertainties explicitly and sets the strategic agenda together with the executive board. |

|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| integrity and dependabilityActing in line with applicable standards and agreements, also without supervision, and being transparent about own interests, mistakes and doubtful cases. | Keeps to agreements and rules of conduct made and reports an own mistake to the manager.                     | Reports a possible conflict of interest on own initiative and asks for review before a decision is taken.                                 | Sets the organisation's integrity standards, enforces them also with influential parties and explains the resulting choices publicly.                    |
| Reading and interpreting financial reportsReads balance sheet, profit and loss account and cash flow statement and derives from these how an organisation or unit stands financially. | Points out the revenue, cost and result items in a periodic report and names the period used.                | Compares reports across several periods, calculates ratios and names which items explain the deviation.                                   | Assesses annual accounts and management reports of the organisation, sets the reporting standard and advises the board on it.                            |
| Risk assessmentNames what can go wrong, estimates likelihood and impact and links control measures or a deliberate acceptance to them.                                                | Spots unsafe or deviating situations in the own work and reports them according to the applicable procedure. | Estimates the main risks for the own process, orders them by likelihood and impact and takes measures.                                    | Sets the risk appetite and the assessment method for the organisation and accounts for accepted residual risks.                                          |
| PersuasivenessMoving others towards a position, decision or behaviour they initially resisted, using substantive arguments, examples and personal presence.                           | Puts forward an own proposal in a meeting and supports it with one concrete example from practice.           | Chooses per counterpart the argument that matches their interest and checks along the way whether the agreement is genuine.               | Wins board and external parties over to a far reaching change of course and sustains that support when resistance increases.                             |
| Stakeholder managementMapping who has an interest in an initiative and maintaining contact with those parties so that decisions keep their support.                                   | Maintains a list of those involved and informs them about progress according to the agreed rhythm.           | Assesses influence and interest per party, chooses a fitting form of contact and discusses conflicting wishes before a decision is taken. | Maintains a network reaching governance and political bodies, connects parties with differing interests and safeguards the position of the organisation. |
| organisational awarenessRecognising how formal and informal relations, interests and decision making work in the organisation and taking these into account in own actions.           | Asks who needs to be involved in a topic before a proposal is shared with others.                            | Assesses which interests a proposal touches, involves the right people beforehand and chooses a suitable moment to raise it.              | Sees through relations between organisational units and external parties and steers decision making by organising support at an early stage.             |

| Skill                                                                                                                                                                                                          | N1                                                                                                         | N3                                                                                                                                   | N5                                                                                                                                                      |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Change managementPlanning and guiding change by involving stakeholders, phasing steps, influencing behaviour and tracking the results the change is meant to deliver.                               | Adapts own way of working to an announced change and asks for explanation when steps are unclear.          | Makes a change approach for the team with those involved, chooses interventions per group and follows the implementation.            | Leads organisation wide change programmes, aligns with works council and supervisors and sets the change approach of the organisation.                  |
| Governance and complianceKnowing which laws, codes of conduct and internal rules apply to the own field and how supervision, mandate and accountability are arranged in the organisation.           | Names the main rules for the own work and looks up the applicable procedure when in doubt.                 | Tests intended working methods against law and internal rules and submits deviations with substantiation to the responsible officer. | Draws up the governance framework of the organisation, defines mandates and oversight arrangements and accounts for compliance to external supervisors. |
| Scenario thinking and futures literacyExplores several possible futures for an issue, describes the consequences per scenario and names signals that point to a scenario.                           | Names two possible outcomes for a plan and states what would then have to change in the own work.          | Works out three scenarios for the own process with assumptions and consequences and names the first signals per scenario.            | Draws up scenarios for the organisation with a horizon of years and links decision moments and measurable signal values to them.                        |
| Taking difficult personnel decisionsDeciding on improvement tracks, transfer or termination of employment, with careful documentation and a clear explanation to the people involved.               | Raises concerns about the performance of a colleague in time and with examples to the responsible manager. | Takes a substantiated decision after a completed improvement track, discusses it in person and records the grounds in the file.      | Decides on far reaching reorganisation and dismissal cases, weighs legal and human consequences and accounts for the choice to board and works council. |
| Decision making in governing bodiesPreparing, tabling and taking decisions in bodies such as a management team or steering group, with clear options, substantiation and recording of the decision. | Delivers requested documents on time for a meeting and summarises the decision taken correctly.            | Writes a decision memo with options and consequences, defends the proposal in the meeting and records the decision.                  | Chairs decision making at executive level, weighs conflicting interests explicitly and determines which decisions belong where in the organisation.     |
| Stress toleranceKeeps delivering work of the same quality under time pressure, opposition or unexpected turns and maintains a businesslike tone with others.                                        | Keeps working on the current task as pressure rises and asks the supervisor which task can wait.           | Keeps working in a structured way at peak load, keeps agreements with clients clear and flags early which results are at risk.       | Keeps the organisation workable in crises, takes decisions under high uncertainty and sets the standard for composed action under pressure.             |

| Skill                                                                                                                                                                                              | N1                                                                                                               | N3                                                                                                                                    | N5                                                                                                                                                |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Market orientationFollows what happens in the market, with customers and with competitors and includes that information in own choices and proposals.                                   | Reads the customer newsletter and the sector news and raises striking signals during the team meeting.           | Links signals from customers and competitors to the own offering and proposes adjustments on that basis.                              | Translates market developments into the strategic agenda of the organisation and repositions the offering for the longer term.                    |
| Budgeting and cost controlDraws up a budget for a task, team or project, tracks spending against that budget and intervenes when overspending threatens.                                | Tracks spending in the supplied overview and reports deviations above the agreed limit.                          | Makes the budget for an own project, follows realisation per period and proposes measures in case of deviation.                       | Sets the budget framework for the organisation, decides on reallocation of resources and accounts for it to the board.                            |
| Developing business modelsDescribes how an activity creates, delivers and captures value and aligns customer groups, channels, costs and revenue streams.                               | Fills in a model on an existing canvas with the data of a familiar service of the organisation.                  | Designs a business model for a new service, calculates the cost structure and tests it with those involved.                           | Revises the business model of the organisation or chain and determines which revenue streams are built up or wound down.                          |
| Correspondence and record keepingDrafting business letters, emails and conversation records and filing them so that the handling remains traceable later for colleagues and regulators. | Sends standard letters from the system, saves attachments in the agreed location and notes the date of dispatch. | Formulates answers to unusual questions independently, records the considerations briefly and keeps the file complete and up to date. | Designs the correspondence and archiving standard for the organisation, checks compliance and accounts for file quality during an external audit. |
| Talent development and successionMapping talent and potential, agreeing development paths and preparing succession for key positions, so that critical roles remain filled over time.   | Notes per team member which tasks they enjoy doing and passes this on to the manager.                            | Assesses with fixed criteria who is ready for a next step and makes a development plan per person.                                    | Builds a succession plan for all key roles in the organisation and discusses the risks yearly with board and supervisors.                         |
| Digital strategy and transformationLinks technological possibilities to organisational goals, sets out a change route and steers the introduction of new digital ways of working.       | Provides input for a digitalisation plan by factually describing bottlenecks in own work process.                | Translates an organisational goal into concrete digital improvements, builds support and tracks whether the intended effects occur.   | Sets the organisation's digital strategy, prioritises investments and accounts for choices to the board and shareholders.                         |

| Skill                                                                                                                                                                                              | N1                                                                                                             | N3                                                                                                                                  | N5                                                                                                                                               |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Dealing with ambiguityWorks on when the assignment, information or division of roles is incomplete or contradictory, makes workable assumptions and tests them once more becomes clear. | Asks what is meant when an assignment is unclear and then works according to the answer given.                 | Formulates explicit assumptions when information is missing, proceeds on that basis and revises the approach once new data arrives. | Sets direction under high uncertainty, makes the remaining uncertainty explicit and keeps the organisation moving until a decision can be taken. |
| Basic contract law knowledgeKnows the main rules on offer, acceptance, breach of contract and general terms and recognises when legal advice is needed.                                 | Uses the standard agreement of the organisation and refers deviating clauses to a legal adviser.               | Assesses contracts on liability, termination and payment and proposes amendments within the own mandate.                            | Sets the contract templates and legal frameworks of the organisation and decides on deviations with major risk.                                  |
| AI literacyKnows how AI systems work, what they can and cannot do, states where they fit or not and uses correct terminology.                                                           | Explains in own words that a language model predicts from patterns and can therefore produce incorrect output. | Judges per work task whether AI is suitable, names the main limitations and explains how it works to colleagues.                    | Defines what AI literacy means in the organisation, measures the level and links it to training and deployment policy.                           |

6 Assessment methods and validity

The validities are the corrected meta-analytic estimates from Sackett, Zhang, Berry and Lievens (2022) in the Journal of Applied Psychology, which replace the older Schmidt and Hunter (1998) figures. The spread matters as much as the mean: with a high SD, validity varies strongly by context.

| Assessment method           | rho  | SD   | What it is                                                                         |

8 How to use this profile

1. Agree the profile with the hiring manager before the first candidate is measured. Weights shifted afterwards make the outcome indefensible.
2. Choose the assessment method per skill from the Assessment method column. Combine at most three methods per candidate.
3. Calibrate the assessors in a two-hour session using the anchors in chapter 5. Anchors without rater training deliver little.
4. Fill in the match calculator and discuss the gaps in the development conversation. Type A and type G are selection criteria, not one-quarter development goals.
