

Lawyer

FF17 Legal, policy and public administration · ISCO-08 2611 · CBS 0621 Juristen · seniority senior · Also known as: Attorney, Solicitor, Barrister

Represents clients in court cases and negotiations, drafts submissions and opinions and, as a sworn lawyer, is personally accountable for the quality of legal representation.

The lawyer is registered with the Dutch bar and carries personal disciplinary responsibility for their conduct. Unlike an in-house counsel, they work per case for changing clients and set their own litigation strategy. Selection usually tests legal sharpness well, but the ability to formulate clearly under courtroom pressure and advise clients realistically on their chances often remains untested.

5 Behavioural anchors per skill

Anchors sit at N1, N3 and N5. N2 and N4 are deliberately not anchored: raters interpolate between them, following the O*NET convention.

| Skill                                                                                                                                                                                            | N1                                                                                                          | N3                                                                                                                              | N5                                                                                                                                              |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Critical thinking and source evaluationTests claims for logic, evidence and the interest of the source and thereby distinguishes facts from opinions and assumptions.                 | Asks what a claim is based on and checks whether the source is named and can be found.                      | Detects fallacies and selective evidence in reports and states which conclusion the data do support.                            | Sets the assessment criteria for sources and claims, including for texts made by artificial intelligence, and enforces them organisation wide.  |
| Business reportingBringing findings, figures and recommendations together in a report that leads the reader to a decision or next step in one reading.                                | Fills in an existing report template with the correct figures and describes per section what has been done. | Builds a report from question to conclusion, separates fact from interpretation and phrases recommendations with a named owner. | Sets the reporting line for the whole organisation, tests the quality of steering information and accounts for outcomes to board and regulator. |
| integrity and dependabilityActing in line with applicable standards and agreements, also without supervision, and being transparent about own interests, mistakes and doubtful cases. | Keeps to agreements and rules of conduct made and reports an own mistake to the manager.                    | Reports a possible conflict of interest on own initiative and asks for review before a decision is taken.                       | Sets the organisation's integrity standards, enforces them also with influential parties and explains the resulting choices publicly.           |

| Skill                                                                                                                                                                                 | N1                                                                                                                    | N3                                                                                                                                        | N5                                                                                                                                                           |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Legal analysisReduces a case to the legally relevant facts, looks up the applicable rules and case law and arrives at a substantiated position.                            | Looks up the applicable statutory article for a simple question and summarises its content in own words.              | Independently analyses a case with conflicting interests, weighs the case law and advises in writing on the line to take.                 | Determines the organisation's legal line on matters of principle and shares knowledge of the field of law with the profession.                               |
| Applying legislationApplies laws, decrees and policy rules to individual cases, weighs exceptions and records the reasoning behind the decision.                           | Applies the fixed decision rules to a standard case and refers doubtful cases to an experienced case handler.         | Independently assesses an application with exceptional circumstances, weighs discretionary room and motivates the decision traceably.     | Sets policy rules and work instructions for implementation and decides on application questions that set precedent.                                          |
| Verbal reasoningUnderstands written and spoken language and draws logical conclusions from it, also when the text is long, dense or ambiguous.                             | Summarises a short work instruction in own words and points out which word or sentence remains unclear.               | Extracts the core arguments from a report of several pages and shows with textual references which conclusion does and does not follow.   | Dissects legal or policy texts with conflicting passages, reformulates the central question and substantiates the chosen reading for the whole organisation. |
| NegotiatingReaching an agreement with one or more parties by exploring interests, using trade offs and consciously holding agreed limits.                                  | Negotiates delivery time or price within fixed margins and refers any deviation to the manager.                       | Prepares a range and a fallback option beforehand, trades points of unequal weight and closes with written confirmation.                  | Leads negotiations on multi year contracts or employment terms, sets the mandate and defines the negotiating line for the organisation.                      |
| Judgement under uncertaintyWeighs the possible explanations when data are missing or conflicting and reaches a reasoned judgement while stating the remaining uncertainty. | Indicates which data are missing when in doubt and proposes a provisional judgement to the manager.                   | Forms a judgement on incomplete files, names the assumptions used and states which new fact would change that judgement.                  | Judges in situations of high uncertainty and opposing interests, accounts for this publicly and revises the judgement on new evidence.                       |
| Advisory skillSharpening the question of a client and delivering a well founded recommendation in a way that the receiver adopts and implements it.                        | Supplies requested information and explains a standard recommendation following the fixed structure used by the team. | Reframes the question behind the question, offers two supported options with consequences and agrees a decision moment.                   | Advises the board on issues with conflicting interests, challenges established assumptions and safeguards the quality of advice across the organisation.     |
| Stakeholder managementMapping who has an interest in an initiative and maintaining contact with those parties so that decisions keep their support.                        | Maintains a list of those involved and informs them about progress according to the agreed rhythm.                    | Assesses influence and interest per party, chooses a fitting form of contact and discusses conflicting wishes before a decision is taken. | Maintains a network reaching governance and political bodies, connects parties with differing interests and safeguards the position of the organisation.     |

| Skill                                                                                                                                                                                  | N1                                                                                                                      | N3                                                                                                                                   | N5                                                                                                                                                |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| organisational awarenessRecognising how formal and informal relations, interests and decision making work in the organisation and taking these into account in own actions. | Asks who needs to be involved in a topic before a proposal is shared with others.                                       | Assesses which interests a proposal touches, involves the right people beforehand and chooses a suitable moment to raise it.         | Sees through relations between organisational units and external parties and steers decision making by organising support at an early stage.      |
| independenceForming and maintaining an own position on the basis of own judgement, even when the environment or an authority expects something different.                   | Forms an own opinion on a familiar issue and compares it with the advice of a colleague.                                | Takes a decision that departs from the group line, explains the reasoning behind it and accepts the consequences.                    | Protects own professional judgement against pressure from stakeholders in senior forums and makes dissenting positions traceable and explainable. |
| Policy developmentDevelops policy through problem analysis, exploration of options, consultation of stakeholders and elaboration into goals, instruments and evaluation.    | Collects figures and documents for a policy exploration under guidance and summarises the findings briefly.             | Independently elaborates a policy proposal with options and expected effects and organises consultation of the parties involved.     | Sets the policy course for a domain, connects parties in the chain and has the effects evaluated systematically.                                  |
| PresentingBuilding and delivering a message to a group with a clear line of argument, fitting materials and attention to reactions and questions from the audience.         | Presents a prepared set of slides about own work and answers factual questions with help from an experienced colleague. | Tailors structure, examples and level of detail to the knowledge of the audience and handles critical questions without preparation. | Presents at external conferences on behalf of the organisation, sets the key message for the field and coaches others on their delivery.          |
| Systems thinkingDescribes how parts of a process or organisation influence each other, including feedback, delay and unintended effects.                                    | Names who or what depends on the own task earlier and later in the process.                                             | Maps the chain around a bottleneck, points out the feedback loop and predicts the effect of an intervention.                         | Models the interplay between departments, market and regulation and shifts the intervention to the point with the greatest leverage.              |
| Editing and plain languageShortening, reordering and rewriting existing texts in plainer language without losing content, nuance or legal meaning.                          | Removes redundant words and repetitions from a text and corrects spelling according to a given checklist.               | Rewrites a formal letter to plain language level B1 and explains to the author which choices were made.                              | Introduces an organisation wide plain language approach, measures readability of core products and adjusts standards based on user testing.       |

| Skill                                                                                                                                                                                               | N1                                                                                                                          | N3                                                                                                                                     | N5                                                                                                                                          |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Professional currency and specialist literatureFollows developments in the own profession through literature, guidelines and networks and works relevant new insights into own practice. | Reads the professional information received and names which part matters for the own work.                                  | Tracks sources and guidelines structurally, weighs their quality and adapts the own working method to new insights.                    | Assesses the state of the field, weighs conflicting research and determines which guidelines the organisation will follow from now on.      |
| Searching and evaluating digital informationSearches digital information with suitable search strategies, judges source and currency and records where information was found traceably.  | Searches with given search terms in the designated sources and reports what was and was not found.                          | Combines search terms and filters across several sources, weighs source reliability and justifies the selection made.                  | Develops search and evaluation standards for the profession and trains others in weighing digital sources.                                  |
| GDPR and privacy in practiceKnows privacy legislation requirements for own work, which legal basis and retention period apply and recognises when notification is required.              | Processes personal data only according to the applicable work instruction and refers doubtful cases to the privacy officer. | Judges in own processes whether a legal basis exists, applies data minimisation and handles requests from data subjects correctly.     | Sets privacy policy, decides on high risk processing operations and represents the organisation towards the supervisory authority.          |
| Basic contract law knowledgeKnows the main rules on offer, acceptance, breach of contract and general terms and recognises when legal advice is needed.                                  | Uses the standard agreement of the organisation and refers deviating clauses to a legal adviser.                            | Assesses contracts on liability, termination and payment and proposes amendments within the own mandate.                               | Sets the contract templates and legal frameworks of the organisation and decides on deviations with major risk.                             |
| Complying with sector regulationKnows the laws, standards and supervisory requirements of the own sector and organises the own work and records accordingly.                             | Works according to the applicable sector rules and checks which rule applies to a new situation.                            | Translates changed regulation into the own work instructions and checks whether the records meet the requirements.                     | Tracks regulation for the whole organisation, drafts policy when requirements change and holds the dialogue with the supervisor.            |
| Public governance decision makingPrepares decisions for a board or council with memoranda, options and consultation, taking political, legal and financial frameworks into account.      | Drafts a memorandum under guidance in the standard format and collects the annexes the file requires.                       | Independently prepares a decision with clear options, aligns with the departments involved and anticipates questions from the council. | Determines the governance agenda and the quality requirements for decision making and advises officeholders on politically sensitive files. |

| Skill                                                                                                                                                                   | N1                                                                                                    | N3                                                                                                                              | N5                                                                                                                                          |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Stress toleranceKeeps delivering work of the same quality under time pressure, opposition or unexpected turns and maintains a businesslike tone with others. | Keeps working on the current task as pressure rises and asks the supervisor which task can wait.      | Keeps working in a structured way at peak load, keeps agreements with clients clear and flags early which results are at risk.  | Keeps the organisation workable in crises, takes decisions under high uncertainty and sets the standard for composed action under pressure. |
| Handling objections and appealsHandles objections and appeals, hears interested parties, reviews the contested decision and drafts a reasoned ruling.        | Registers an objection, checks the deadlines and drafts the standard letters to interested parties.   | Independently chairs a hearing, weighs the grounds put forward and writes a ruling a court can follow.                          | Designs the organisation's objection procedure, analyses rulings and steers towards fewer upheld objections.                                |
| Planning own workTranslates own work into a plan with steps, interim results and lead times, and tracks progress against that plan throughout the period.    | Fills in a pre structured weekly schedule and discusses with the supervisor which step to take first. | Builds an own plan with milestones and dependencies, checks progress weekly and revises the plan when actual progress deviates. | Introduces planning methods that are adopted across the discipline and decides how capacity is distributed over multi year work streams.    |

6 Assessment methods and validity

The validities are the corrected meta-analytic estimates from Sackett, Zhang, Berry and Lievens (2022) in the Journal of Applied Psychology, which replace the older Schmidt and Hunter (1998) figures. The spread matters as much as the mean: with a high SD, validity varies strongly by context.

| Assessment method           | rho  | SD   | What it is                                                                         |

8 How to use this profile

1. Agree the profile with the hiring manager before the first candidate is measured. Weights shifted afterwards make the outcome indefensible.
2. Choose the assessment method per skill from the Assessment method column. Combine at most three methods per candidate.
3. Calibrate the assessors in a two-hour session using the anchors in chapter 5. Anchors without rater training deliver little.
4. Fill in the match calculator and discuss the gaps in the development conversation. Type A and type G are selection criteria, not one-quarter development goals.
